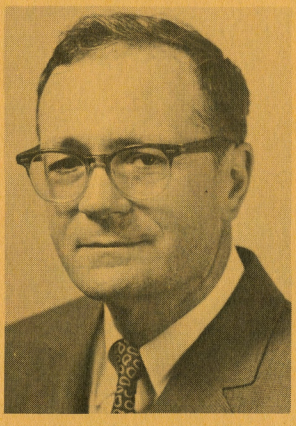
COACH ROYAL



DOYLE ROYAL is entering his 28th season as head tennis coach at the University of Maryland. He became the first tennis coach at Maryland after returning from the war in 1946. Since that time his tennis teams have compiled a record of 249 wins, 92 defeats, and 4 ties. In addition, he has coached Maryland's soccer team for 27 years to a 208-54-17 record.

He was graduated from Roosevelt High School in Washington, D. C. and came to College Park as an undergraduate in 1939 with aid to play tennis. That same year he was on the Junior Davis Cup team. At Roosevelt, he won letters in four sports and captained the basketball and tennis teams. He won three tennis letters and one soccer monogram at Maryland.

He received his diploma in 1942 and went off to war. During the war he took part in the invasion of France, earned a Silver Star for Valor, a Purple Heart, and three campaign ribbons. He retired from the Army Reserve following the summer of 1968 as a Lt. Colonel.

Royal held the Middle Atlantic Lawn Tennis Association Indoor Senior Singles title in 1970. A finalist the next year, he regained the title in 1972. He includes physical fitness, recreation, and education among his other interests.

Royal married the former Loraine Bishop of Asheville, N. C. They have one girl, Lisa, 16, and one boy, Derry, 14.
